FOR PROSECUTING

ATTORNEY.

Captain Joseph Walsh Entitled
To A Re-Nomination.

If the people of this county desire a good Prosecuting Attorney they will see to it that Capt. Joe Walsh is re-elected to that office. It would be the meanest thing that could be recorded in St. Clair county politics if the people of the county refused to re-elect the Captain. Up until the time he went to Cuba he made as brilliant and as satisfactory a record as any man that ever held the office. He was not influenced by any prejudices or motives other than for the public good as was evidenced in the trial of the case of the People against Owen McArron which was watched with great interest by the people of this locality. Mr. Walsh proved himself to be a conscientious, fair and determined prosecutor, just such as the people of this county want, and we will be terribly disappointed if he does not receive a unanimous vote in this township. It would be a shame for any man who knows the Captain to refuse to vote for him. We predict a splendid vote for him all over the county and in particular here where the Captain is known and his record is like an open book to our people.

When Captain Walsh returned from the Santiago Campaign the members of his Company were loud in their praise of his faithfulness and efforts in their behalf. It was conceded that he had been down with the fever on three occasions and returned to his Company when he should have remained under the physicians care. Since his return he has had a relapse and is confined to his home on account of disease contracted at the front. With the care and treatment he is receiving he will soon be able to resume the duties of his office. Captain Joe will certainly receive hearty support at the polls on November 8th.

The Best Man For Sheriff.

There is no question but Harrison W. Maines should receive the entire republican vote of this county for Sheriff. Everybody who knows him has a good word to say for him and his ability as an officer. He is capable, fearless, honest, sober, and industrious. The following letter recently written to the Port Huron Times by Henry C. Hope, for many years Port Huron's leading groceryman, expresses the sentiment of the many honorable citizens who are advocating his election:

To the Editor of The Times:
As an old resident of this city and an old acquaintance of a great many of the candidates on the different tickets I thought that in justice to one of them that I would write you this communication for the people. The contest between the candidates for sheriff is quite spirited and I take this means of speaking a word in favor of my friend, Harrison W. Maines. I knew Mr. Maines when a boy, and I have known him daily since he arrived at manhood, and can say truthfully of my friend that he was both a manly boy and a manly, honest, upright man, always true to a friend and just to an enemy. I have known him as a neighbor for a number of years, and I don't believe there is a man living who can honestly say one word of reproach against Haas Maines. I feel satisfied that if he is elected sheriff he will make as good if not the very best sheriff this county has ever had. He is fearless and courageous, and the people need not doubt that he will do his whole duty if he is elected to the office.
Truly yours,
H. C. HOPE.

UNITED FOR LIFE.

FOX—WILT.

A very pleasant wedding occurred on Wednesday, October 19th, the contracting parties being Miss Ida, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Fox, of Greenwood, and Mr. Charles Wilt, of Yale. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Laughran in St. Joseph's church at Brockway. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. Both young people are well known and highly respected in this vicinity. The Expositor wishes them a long and happy life.

STANLEY—THOMPSON.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents, in Maple Valley, on Thursday, Oct. 13th, by Rev. W. Baldwin, Miss Josephine Stanley and Rev. Jonathan Thompson, pastor of the M. E. church of this place. The reverend gentleman and his bride were met at the station on their arrival here by about 30 young people, who welcomed them with showers of rice, and when they reached the parsonage, their future home, they found the house full to overflowing with friends and members of the church, who did not forget that this was their first home-coming and had a bountiful supper prepared; they also brought a winter's supply of fruit and vegetables. The Review joins in best wishes for the future happiness of the young people. —Richmond Review.

BRADSHAW—HUDSON.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bradshaw, the impressive ceremony which united for life Miss Maggie Bradshaw, of Roseburg and Mr. William Hudson, of Jeddo, was performed in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The wedding took place at four p. m., Wednesday, October 19th. Rev. Rowe, of Yale, officiating. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and various kinds of flowering plants. The bride, attired in a dress of dark blue with vest of cream satin appeared radiant and lovely, while her bridesmaid, Miss Nellie McIntyre, in a cream Henrietta, carrying a bouquet of pink roses, looked equally attractive. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of cream roses. The groom was attended by his cousin, Mr. A. Farwell, of Jeddo. At five o'clock the guests were conducted to the tables laden with all the delicacies of the season where the customary scene of feasting and rejoicing followed. The bride who is one of the most well known and highly esteemed young ladies of the community was the recipient of many beautiful and useful tokens of regard from her many friends. Many of those who were unable to be present at this joyful scene sent words of regret and handsome tokens of remembrance by mail. After a very pleasant season of social intercourse and enjoyment the guests departed for their respective homes, after wishing the newly united couple life long joy and happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson drove to Yale and took the evening train to start on a bridal tour to various places of interest. The best wishes of the entire community go with the happy couple. May their life voyage together be prosperous and happy. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson will be at home to their friends after November 1st.
